SUMMARY

Product Manager with 4+ years building digital lending products in fintech, currently owning the Home Loan digital acquisition stack at Bajaj Finance — from credit eligibility rules to lead allocation and lending-partner integrations. Operates across both strategic and tactical layers of the role: shaping roadmap and partnership strategy with Business and Credit Policy teams, while running sprint planning, backlog grooming, and specs with Engineering and Design. Previously owned the Personal Loan digital platform end-to-end, from requirements through post-launch iteration. Grounded in data — uses Google Analytics, CleverTap, and Looker Studio to validate decisions and prioritize the roadmap.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Bajaj Finance

Jun 2023 – Present

Product Manager – Home Loan: Digital Platforms and Consumer AI

Dec 2025 – Present

- Own product strategy for Home Loan digital acquisition, translating business and credit-policy requirements into scalable lead-generation and qualification systems.
- Define requirements and drive execution of digital campaign infrastructure across search, social, and paid channels to generate high-quality home loan demand.
- Lead product requirements for strategic NBFC and financial-institution partnerships, designing lead-exchange and commission workflows with legal, business, and tech teams.
- Design and ship the MCP (Minimum Credit Parameters) Master and Lead Allocation Master — a rules engine that pre-qualifies leads and routes them to the right lending partner based on credit profile, eligibility, and business rules.
- Map and optimize the end-to-end digital home loan funnel — from awareness and lead generation through login, sanction, and disbursal — identifying drop-off points and prioritizing fixes.

Project 1 – Lead Quality & Allocation Optimization (MCP + Allocation Engine): Implemented MCP-based lead pre-qualification and built a rule-driven allocation engine to route leads to relevant partners, improving lead quality, partner match, and overall conversion efficiency, while optimizing acquisition ROI.

Project 2 – Next Best Product Engine (In Progress): Building a framework to recommend alternate loan products when customers fail primary product MCP checks. Evaluates eligibility across related products and uses a propensity model to show the top 3 relevant offers within the same journey.

Product Manager: Digital Platforms

Jun 2023 – Nov 2025

- Led development and management of digital platforms (app and web) for the Personal Loan product, growing user engagement 27% and user acquisition 14%.
- Served as primary liaison between technical and business stakeholders, driving alignment on requirements and project status throughout the delivery lifecycle.
- Wrote detailed product specifications and requirements in partnership with engineering teams to ensure aligned, on-time delivery.

- Owned end-to-end delivery — from concept and design through development, testing, deployment, and post-launch support — ensuring seamless product releases.
- Used Google Analytics and CleverTap to track user behaviour and KPIs, driving data-informed decisions that lifted conversion rates 23%.
- Partnered with UI/UX designers to streamline the application experience, cutting user drop-off rates 40%.

Project 1 – Personal Loan Platform Enhancement: Spearheaded the complete redesign of the personal loan application process on both app and web platforms, resulting in a 15% reduction in application completion time and a 30% increase in completed applications.

Project 2 – GYDE AI Voice Assist – Funnel Optimisation: Led end-to-end implementation of AI-driven voice assist within PL forms to guide users and reduce drop-offs, leading to a ~3.5% increase in PL Form-1 submissions.

Project 3 – Microfinance Loan: Digital Lead Creation: Successfully designed, developed, and launched a streamlined lead creation process for a new product — Microfinance group loan — on App and Web platforms, aimed at improving user engagement and increasing lead conversion rates.
